[Large empty rectangular box for the witness statement submission]

As stated in the University Code of Conduct, it is expected that all persons making statements or answering questions in a judicial hearing do so truthfully. If any intentional false information is provided by any individual for the purposes of a student judicial process, that individual (if a student at UGA) can face possible Code of Conduct charges/violations. Additionally, if the student alleged to have violated the Code persuades a student or non-student to present intentional false information, that student can face additional Code of Conduct charges/violations. By submitting, signing and checking the box below, you are acknowledging that you understand these expectations.
